Report on Professional development programme / Administrative training programme organized by the institution for Teaching and Non-teaching staff members during 2018-2019

The teacher is considered the professional agent and the most directly responsible person in the process of learning. Professional training and professional development of teachers is the need of the hour. Today, there is a need to shift from traditional-based teaching that is largely based on theoretical educational processes to a research-theory-based teaching that informs and inspires teaching practices. This is claimed to have a deep implication in education reflecting the fact that teachers should be in constant contact with research for possible future teaching innovations and incorporating new research findings in their teaching practices to improve learning and assure high-quality teaching. Teachers' professional training and professional development is a necessary ingredient to support innovative and beneficial teaching. Therefore to increase the standard of quality in teaching, SFRC conducts seminars/workshops/faculty development programs regularly. It also conducts Support Staff Development Programmes for the progression and motivation of non-teaching staff.

In the academic year, 2018-2019, the institution has conducted twelve professional development programmes for teachers and four for non-teaching faculty members. The tabulation reflecting the programmes conducted for teaching and non-teaching staff members are given below:
