Dear madam,

I am Karpagalakshmi. I'm your old student. Now I'm doing Ph.D. in Kalasalingam academy of research and education, Krishnankoil. I am very much interest to participate in International seminar on Recent trends in interdisciplinary Sciences (RTIS-2019) in "The Standard Fireworks Rajaratnam College for Women (Autonomous)", Sivakasi on 20th September 2019. so, I have sent my research abstract to you and I hope you to select my abstract to this seminar.

Date : 19.08.16
Speaker : Dr.A.Gubendran,
Associate Professor ,
S.N College,
Madurai.
Topic: : Organic Photo Chemistry &
Pericyclic Reactions-CSIR Approach”
Welcome address : P.Nandini , M.Sc Chemistry
Vote of Thanks : M. Sudha Priyadharshini, M.Sc Chemistry
Participants : PG Students & staff members

The meeting started at 1.30 pm. During the first and second sessions from 1.30 pm to 4.30pm an extensive idea about the various applications of the organic photochemistry and pericyclic reactions was given. During all the sessions he discussed the possible questions which are frequently asked in CSIR examinations. The entire part of the lecture gave an idea to the students about the preparation for CSIR examinations. From 4.30pm to 5.00 pm an interaction session was held. The students interacted with the chief guest about their doubts in various topics related to their syllabus and also regarding the preparation for CSIR examinations. He gave lecture and hands on training on “Organic Photo Chemistry, Pericyclic Reactions-CSIR Approach” The students have given their feed back on the above workshop that they are benefited for clearing the CSIR examination and found interest in doing research work in future.

Respected sir

On behalf of Dept. of Chemistry, I would like to thank you for your graceful presence and informative presentation on 1. Periodic Table- an Overview, Organic Photochemistry and pericyclic reactions. We believe that the knowledge you have shared with the students will develop them to greater extent. Thank you again for your contribution and valuable suggestions for employability in global scenario.

REPORT

The program commenced with the prayer song by Mrs. B. Saroja, Associate Professor, and Department of Chemistry. Dr (Mrs). M. Murugalakshmi, Assistant Professor, welcomed the chief guest and the gathering, and introduced the chief guest to the audience. The guest explained the various modes of drug actions, the effect of drugs in disease recovery and their side effects. She also highlighted the various biocatalyst and its applications to reduce global warming. She also explained the various aspects of sustainable chemistry and their application to carry out research work. She has provided various methodology of drug designing to apply computational knowledge in a virtual laboratory. The lectures were very useful for the students. Students interacted with the guest actively and have raised their doubts and the speaker provided correct clarifications to their doubts. The program ended successfully after the vote of thanks delivered by Miss S. Meenakshi, III BSc Chemistry.
