POLICY DOCUMENT FOR DIVYANGJAN

Introduction:

"Everything has its wonders, even darkness and silence, and I learn, whatever state I may be in, therein to be content." Helen Keller

SFRC's motto is to unite everyone in the mission of educating and empowering women. At the outset, the institution encompasses uplifting the life of women by transforming not only as graduates but also an independent entrepreneur. Under Divyangjan, the college devises finest policy making by opening doors for PwDs (differently-abled persons) by enrolling them in various courses.

Objective:

- To provide an opportune environment to mobilize their academic requirement
- To supply special architectural facilities for their independent functioning
- To create awareness about the differently-abled functionaries and to guard them from discrimination

Policy:

- Enabling flexible number of differently-abled admissions in various courses
- Ensuring the required special aids like approachable classrooms, special toilets and assistive devices according to their faculties
- Providing counseling to differently - abled students on the types of courses they could study at the higher education institutions
- Implementing fee concessions, examination procedures, reservation, policies, etc., pertaining to differently-abled persons
- Identifying the aptitude of differently-abled students and assist them in getting appropriate employment when desired by them after their studies
- Instructing the students about recommendations from the government and assist in availing all the monetary and non-monetary benefits
- Providing skill development courses to realize their latent talents and to get trained in entrepreneurial and technical skills
- Offering them platform to sell their own hand made products
- Exerting all teaching strategies appropriate without compromising the crux of the course for effective learning
